Affirmation of Baptism and Pentecost

As a church which follows the liturgical year, the day of Pentecost is celebrated as a special day in our life of worship. Celebrated 50 days after Easter, Pentecost is the remembrance and celebration of the corporate giving of the Holy Spirit, as is recorded in Acts chapter 2, “When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them” (emphasis mine). The beginning of verse 4, emphasized, records all those gathered in Jerusalem received the Holy Spirit. Fifty days after the resurrection of Jesus, his disciples received the promised Advocate and Helper (John 14:16). Though the Holy Spirit was alive and active before Pentecost, his role was limited. Pentecost changed the way God and his people relate. Now, God dwelled in humankind and not apart from them.

“God dwells in humankind and not apart from us”.

As a church which practices infant baptism, Confirmation is an important piece of discipleship for young believers. Confirmation is a period of instruction given to middle school students to help them know and believe in Jesus Christ. After this instruction, the young person chooses to participate in the Rite of Confirmation, technically known as Affirmation of Baptism. In this rite, practiced during a corporate worship service on Pentecost, the young person affirms Jesus’ work done at their baptism (forgiveness of sins, empowerment of the Holy Spirit, welcome into the family of God and a promise of salvation) and confirms their faith in him, thereby “Taking hold of Eternal Life” (1 Tim. 6:12).

Traditionally, the church has practiced Affirmation of Baptism on the day of Pentecost for obvious reasons. Namely, with a public profession of faith, the young person receives the continuing presence, gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit. Furthermore, the Confirmand officially joins “a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s special possession,” (1 Peter 2:9) the Church. This year is no different at Richland Lutheran. We will celebrate both Affirmation of Baptism and Pentecost 50 days after Easter on Sunday, May 19 with one combined worship service at 10:00am and a congregation wide lunch to celebrate the newest ‘official’ members of our congregation. Hope you can join us!

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Steve

From the Council

Rick Budzeck, Council President

I try and use this space in the Preview to keep the congregation informed on what your church council is doing. We exist to serve both our Lord and our church, and we rely on His guidance to do both.

At our last meeting, we talked a little about the new safety program and how it is being put into place. Mostly though, our discussions centered on our need for an Associate Pastor.

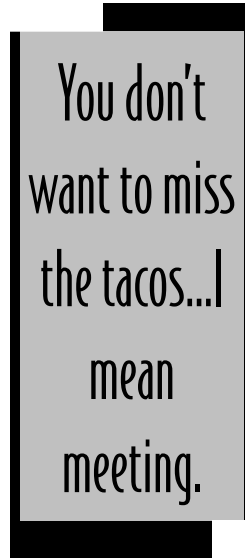

The largest part of filling that need is to first establish a call committee. Therefore, we spent quite a bit of time trying to come up with names of those we felt could best serve in that field. I'm happy to say that we found 9 volunteers willing to serve in this capacity, two of which will serve ex-officio. At our Special Congregation Meeting on Sunday, May 5th the candidates will be presented for your vote.

And speaking of the Special Congregation Meeting, we will also be voting on the Ratification of Chapter 8 of the Constitution that was approved at our 2023 Annual Meeting last October. This plans to be a short meeting and no other business will be conducted. Tacos will be served at lunch in celebration of Cinco de Mayo!

And finally, we ask that you keep the council members in your prayers and let us know if you have anything weighing on your mind that the council might help with. As I have said previously, the council is there to serve, and we wouldn't want anyone to think otherwise.

Yours in Christ,

Rick

Prayer Request Group

When RLC receives a prayer request that is not confidential, that request is shared with the RLC Prayer Group through CCB. This group receives the prayer request by email and will pray for the specific needs individually, not in a group setting. If you are interested in this ministry, and would like to be added to the group, please contact Merri Buck in the RLC office.

Death, Dying and Burial Information

Topics such as this are things we generally don't like to talk about, but they are so very important to both you, and your loved ones upon your "change of address". As Christians, death can become an expression of our trust that in Christ all things are made new. He prepares us for death in His own way, from the very moment that we are born. Our baptism involves us in the life, death, and resurrection and the promised return of Christ. Therefore, death is a part of our larger life with God. To help you think about dying, death, and burial in the confident assurance of Christ's victory, and to give you the opportunity of expressing your hope, we have prepared a form for your use for preplanning your service. You may, on completion, file it in the church office to be held in the safe if you so desire.

If you have completed a form previously and would like to review what you provided or update your preferences, please contact Merri in the office. She will arrange a convenient time for you to come in and discuss your wishes. We have made the form available in both paper form and electronic.

Outreach Help Needed

Union Gospel Men's Outreach

We would love to have a few more volunteers in case someone cannot attend since there is only 3 members on this team currently. The Chapel Service is held every 3rd Sunday evening at 7:00 PM at Union Gospel Men's chapel. If this is something you would like to know more information about please contact: Alan Tindell.

Block Party Lead & Co-Lead

In September we host the neighborhood Block Party. We are in desperate need of people to Lead & Co-Lead this fun event. We have all the details and just need someone to take charge. One or two people to Lead & Co-Lead would be best. If you would like more information please contact: Diane Bonin.

Last day of Sunday school is 5/12!

Chapter a Day Reading Plan 2024

In 2024, we began reading together through the poetic books of Ecclesiastes, Song of Solomon, and Lamentations, as well as the major and minor prophets. This reading series will follow a similar rhythm as our New Testament reading in 2023, with most readings being just a chapter per day, Monday through Friday. Weekends will be unscheduled times for rest and reflection, or catch up as needed. The Thursday morning discussion group will continue to meet with Pastor Steve, and all are welcome to come join in when you're available.

New reading schedule booklets will be available in the narthex and the fellowship hall by the end of December. A PDF with clickable links to each day's readings will also again be posted on the church website, and in the church app.

Our prayer for you in this ministry continues to be that God's Word will be hidden in your heart (Ps. 119:11), and that the Word will dwell in you richly (Col. 3:16). Happy Reading!

Remember to join Pastor Steve on Thursday mornings at 9:00 AM in the friendship room for discussion of the week's readings!

Ministry Minute

As a member of the Lutheran Church in Mission for Christ (LCMC) denomination, RLC supports missions local and world wide. Members of RLC sometimes ask about local mission work. An example of 3 missions working together occurred in April. The Sewing Bee (1) provided lap quilts to be given as gifts to the women participating in Kairos (2). Any lap quilt not issued during the event, but ready with scriptures sewn on, will be given out by the RLC prayer ministry team to those facing a crisis such as an upcoming surgery or fighting a critical illness. The Prayer Quilt (3) mission and all three of these missions are always looking for help. If interested in joining any of these three ministries, contact the office and Merri will put you in contact with the ministry lead.

NEW Mary Martha Bible Study

A new Bible study will begin on Monday, May 6, entitled "The 7 Virtues of a Proverbs 31 Woman", by Darlene Schacht. Join us as we discover the timeless wisdom and transformative power of the Proverbs 31 Woman. We will dive deep into Scripture as we seek to understand and embody the essential qualities of a godly woman. For more information, and to order the study guide, please contact Vicki Glasford or Donna Brown.
