

THE PREVIEW

MAKING DISCIPLES WHO WORSHIP, GROW, SERVE, AND STEWARD

Read Through the New Testament in 2023

We are so excited to begin the New Year with a Bible reading plan to read the New Testament in a year. Pastor Steve will host a Bible study group on Thursday mornings at 9:00 AM, starting January 5, to discuss the readings for each week. We hope you will join us and read through the New Testament in 2023.

A booklet with the reading plan for the year is available in the information area of the Prince of Peace Fellowship Hall and in the Narthex. The full reading plan with clickable links is available on our website on the Spiritual Growth Ministry page, and through the RLC phone app under the Connect tab. You can also find the plan for January on page 7 of this newsletter.

Historic Wall Project...Complete!

From Pastor Steve

“See it to believe it!” No doubt you’ve heard this from someone, sometime. It’s a very common idiom to express something so extreme that it’s difficult to believe only hearing about it. Well, this is certainly the case with the completed Historic Wall Project at Richland Lutheran Church (RLC).

Years in the making, our project to display God’s faithfulness at RLC, in our many years, is finally finished. As one walks down the education wing hallway, they begin their trip through the decades of ministry and mission. From the 1940’s, when RLC was founded, through the 50’s, 60’s, 70’s, 80’s, 90’s, 2000’s, and 10’s, the wall displays highlights of God’s Kingdom work through our congregation.

What a great way to remember God’s faithfulness to RLC and also celebrate the many who have gone before us. These are the thousands of faithful believers who have gone before us having lived their lives in the same body of Christ we now live. Looking back on the past and remembering their lives of faith and obedience to Christ inspires us to live our own lives, to run our own race, do our own following of Jesus Christ. If they did it, so can we!

You may notice the 20’s is not yet on the wall. This is because God is in the process of writing his Kingdom history with all of us, and he’s not done yet. In fact, we’ve just begun. I like to look at the empty space following the 10’s and expectantly think, “What will this historical wall say about us?” This is very inspiring and leads me into envisioning what God will do in the next 10 years here at RLC. I hope you’ll join me!

p.s. As with any project there are many to thank. Too many to list here, in fact. So, I won’t. However, special thanks to Theresa Whoele, our project manager, and to Loren Schmid, our resident historian. Thanks also to the RLC staff and council for their hard work and dedication to this project. And finally, thanks to the “great cloud of witnesses” (Heb. 12:1) who have gone before us. Without you, there is no history!

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Steve

President's Message: Watchful and Responsible Care

Sandy Steele, Congregation President

Happy New Year to each and everyone! It's hard to believe that it's already another new year – 2023. As I've shared with you in the past, this is one of my favorite seasons. It brings, for me, a fresh start and, along with it, hope – the hope that comes only through our Lord, Jesus Christ. As we enter into this new year and as I contemplate hope, my thoughts go to the words found in RLC's newly ratified constitution: "...Council shall have watchful and responsible care of the life and activities of the congregation, particularly its worship life, to ensure that everything is done in accordance with the Word of God." Watchful and responsible care. What does this mean? It means that we'll look to the spiritual health of RLC as we come alongside of our pastors, staff, and congregants as partners in ministry. "Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood." Acts 20:28. In other words, our focus will be on ministry, not management.

Thank you to all those who serve on our Council and the various Council Committees.

We, of course, will still have the business element for which we are responsible – carrying out the provisions of the bylaws and policies; financial decisions; and other important issues that pop up regularly – while, at the same time, practicing watchful and responsible care of the life and activities of the congregation,...". How do we do this? We begin with prayer and turning it over to God for His wisdom and guidance. God called each of us to this leadership role in which we were elected by you and we do not take this responsibility lightly. So, I ask for your support and prayers for Council, pastors and staff as we go forward into this new year. I, especially, ask for your love and forgiveness when Council may not get it quite right. We, in turn, will continue to keep you in our prayers.

As was shared with you at the Annual Meeting, a vacancy occurred on the Nominating Committee and Council made the commitment to fill that position. It gives me great pleasure to announce that we have fulfilled this promise. Pastor Paul Berthelot has graciously answered the call to fill this position with one year remaining. We thank Pastor Paul and we, especially, thank God for His guidance in this process.

Lastly, I'd like to join Pastor Steve in giving my thanks to Theresa Woehle for taking on the Historical Wall Project and bringing it to such a spectacular completion. If you haven't seen it yet, I invite you to the education wing hallway to see this decade-by-decade depiction of RLC's history. I also thank all of you who helped to make this project happen – you know who you are.

A Very Blessed and Happy New Year to All!
Sandy Steele

From the Council: A Prayer for RLC

Diane Bonin - Secretary

Romans 12:4-8

For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others. We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophesy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully.

Welcome to the New Year! 2023 brings new opportunities for us at RLC as we return to normal activities and put Covid restrictions behind us.

As I complete my term on the Council, I hope I have served you well. I am appreciative for all that have made RLC a welcoming warm place to worship, learn, foster relationships, and in building God's kingdom.

In looking forward to the future, I am looking forward to our continued transformation as God's adopted children and pray that members continue their faithfulness in support of RLC. It is my hope that members continue involvement in activities as it takes all members of our RLC body for the church to function properly and to produce fruit. There are a variety of opportunities available.

I wanted to share with you my prayer, wishes and hopes for RLC's future. I am sure you share similar desires. Thank you for allowing me to serve on the Council for the last four years, and I look forward to continuing service with you in the coming years.

Dear Lord,

Thank you for nurturing RLC over the past 76 years, and providing us Spiritually lead staff, leaders, and members.

Please continue to stir up the Holy Spirit within us and guide us to make God lead decisions in all we do and help us transform to become more Christ like.

Remind us to use our heavenly gifts to further your mission here on earth and bring glory and honor in your name.

Please protect us from evil and bless us with wisdom, compassion, and most of all love.

All this we ask in Christ's name and to his glory!
Amen

Save the Date!

LCMC NW District Annual Gathering

May 19-21, 2022

"Come, follow me!"

The keynote speaker will be Greg Finke, founder and Executive Director of Dwelling 1:14 and author of books, Joining Jesus on His Mission: How to Be an Everyday Missionary and, Joining Jesus – Show Me How: How to Disciple Everyday Missionaries. Greg will be delivering a series of keynote sessions throughout the weekend. Often times people simply look at the cross through the lens of personal salvation and live life primarily on the sidelines of God's activity in the world. But Greg will show us how Jesus' atoning sacrifice on the cross not only saves us, but also gives us a mission and compels us to live on the frontlines of God's Kingdom building activity in our own communities. Using a scriptural foundation, Greg will educate and inspire us toward an exciting new way of living as everyday missionaries in our local communities. Check out Greg's Blog and the Dwelling 1:14 website (<https://dwelling114.org>).

IMPACT Youth Gathering lead by April Johnson (Peace Lutheran Church Belgrade, MT) and Ken Olson (Wilderness Ranch Camp, Alberta, Canada) will be in parallel for a wonderful weekend to grow in faith, serve others and have fun together in fellowship with youth from all over the Northwest. Our outdoor camp activities will include archery, campfires, canoeing, high ropes, zip-lining, and more. This is for youth ages 6th to 12th grade.

Julie Smith, LCMC's Coordinator for Districts and Fellowship Groups, will be joining us not only to report on happenings across the wide spectrum of our association and will facilitate a Pre-gathering Session for Pastors, starting at 10:00 AM Friday.

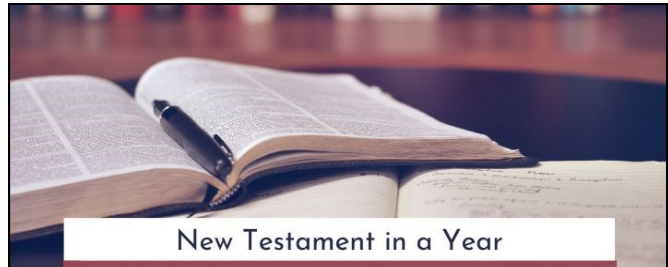

Registration will open soon. For now, save the date: May 19-21, 2023 at Camp Luthervan on beautiful Lake Coeur D'Alene!

LCMC 3 Days of Prayer

Join the LCMC 3 Days of Prayer on January 3-5. The three days focus on our congregations and leaders, those who don't know Jesus yet, and our international partners.

You can find more information and prayer resources at <https://www.lcmc.net/three-days-of-prayer>.

2023 Offering Envelopes

Due to production issues, our 2023 offering envelopes are delayed. Temporary envelopes to use through the month of January, including a “pink envelope” for above and beyond giving for specific ministries of your choice, have been placed in your mailbox in the fellowship hall. We hope to have our regular offering envelopes available in the coming weeks, however, should the delay be longer than expected, we will print additional temporary envelopes and distribute to your mailbox. Please watch for an announcement updating the situation.

Electronic giving through Pushpay continues to be available through the church app and website and is not impacted by this situation. Your patience and understanding are very appreciated. If you have any questions, please contact Jenny Page (jenny.page@RichlandLutheranChurch.com).

Please check your mailbox in the fellowship hall for your temporary offering envelopes.

Christian Education Scholarships

The Richland Lutheran Church Council, at the recommendation of the Richland Lutheran Church Christian Scholarship Committee, has awarded a total of two scholarships for 2023.

Kelly Westlund is in her final year at Fuller Theological Seminary and will graduate at the end of summer with a MDiv with the goal of ordained pastoral ministry.

Amanda Daniels is also taking a course each quarter at Fuller Theological Seminary with a goal of Masters of Divinity (MDiv). Her graduation date is TBD.

We congratulate these two people and pray for God’s blessing and continued direction as they take this journey to serve their Lord.

The Scholarship Committee
Norene Erlandson, Julie Gearheard, Donna Brown

How Can You Pray Today?

Each week we publish a list of prayer requests along with the weekly announcements. You can take this home from worship on Sundays, or find it on the RLC website on the “Announcements and Newsletters” page.

- Pray for the ministries at RLC to be those that would bring glory to God.
- Pray for our community around RLC and for discernment in how we can best support and encourage them.

If you have a prayer request, contact the RLC office. If you would like to receive the requests via the Email Prayer Chain, contact Kelly Westlund to be added to the distribution list.

If you are available on Thursday mornings at 10:30 AM, we would love to have you join us to pray for our congregation and ministries. Contact Kelly Westlund for Zoom information for this prayer time.
