Sharing Your Faith

We all know we should share our faith, but how do we do that in the course of daily life? If one of your resolutions is to be more bold about sharing your faith, here are some tips to get you started. We will include some more throughout the year.

In the course of daily life:

- Wear a cross or a religious symbol. You may be surprised how many times this will start a conversation about your faith.
- Pray before a meal, especially with family and friends, but also in public places.
- Refer to your church, your faith and the Bible in casual conversation with others.
- Respond "Thank God!" or "God is Good!" when someone shares an uplifting story with you.

At the office:

- Decorate your office with symbols or pictures that say something about your faith or could invite conversation about God.
- Offer affirmation to colleagues for a job well done; share how thankful you are to God for their gifts.
- Carry your faith over into your work by insisting on fair prices, good products and just treatment of customers and employees.

In times of struggle and pain:

- Visit neighbors, friends and colleagues when they are sick or hospitalized.
- Share a devotional booklet and offer a prayer.
- Deliver a meal or plate of cookies to the family or person struggling with loss, tragedy or illness.

A Time to Grieve

Grief Information and Support

Group: Richland Lutheran Church will be offering two information and support groups entitled 'A Time to Grieve: Journeying Through Grief.'

The groups will start Monday, January 12, at 1 PM and 7 PM, both will be held in the Friendship Room. The classes will continue for eight weeks. All aspects of grief will be discussed and explored. These support groups are open to all people; since grief is a universal experience all can benefit from the information presented. Materials will be provided. Pastor William Voris, our Interim Associate Pastor will be the presenter.

Volunteers Sought for Homeless Count

Volunteers are needed to assist Benton-Franklin Community Action Committee in conducting the federally required annual count of homeless individuals and families on Thursday, January 29, 2009. Can you help or to recruit other volunteers for the 2009 count?

Why Do We Need a Homeless Count?

- To establish a baseline of our homeless population so that we can track our progress towards reducing homelessness,
- To preserve current federal funding for services to the homeless in Benton and Franklin Counties and enhance our ability to raise new private and government funds in the future,
- To improve the ability of government and service providers to plan and implement effective services to reduce homelessness in our area, and
- To increase public awareness of homelessness within Benton and Franklin Counties.

Volunteers are needed from all areas of Benton and Franklin Counties, particularly in the areas of Connell, Benton City, and Prosser. Volunteers who are bilingual in English and Spanish are urgently needed.

Volunteers must commit to:

Attending a one-hour training session on Thursday, January 15 or 22, at either 3:00 PM or 5:30 PM at the Benton-Franklin Community Action Committee office at 720 West Court Street, Pasco.

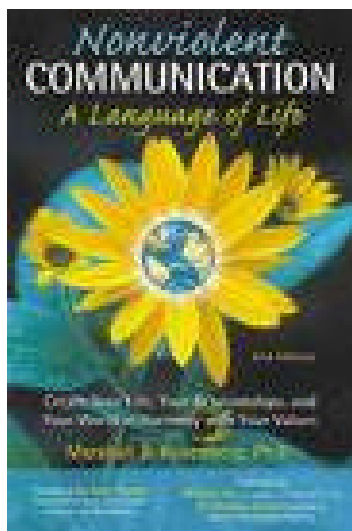

NOTE: Special training sessions can be arranged for groups of six or more who are not able to attend on the 15th or 22nd.

Serve at least one 3-hour shift on Thursday, January 29.

Have access to a cell phone on the day of the count.

For more information contact Cricket Cordova at (509) 545-4042 or ccordova@bfcac.org.

Compassionate Communication Class

Richland Lutheran Church will be offering a workshop entitled, Nonviolent Communication – A Language of Life and Compassion. Scripture will be an integral part of the eight-week course. This workshop will be starting Tuesday, January 13, at 7 PM in the Friendship Room. The text to be used in this class is a book by Marshall B. Rosenberg, Ph.D., Nonviolent Communication: A Language of Life. After the first session, books will be ordered for those attending and can be purchased. Pastor William Voris, Interim Associate Pastor, is the facilitator. If you have any questions about the class, please call Pastor Voris at the church, 943-3164.

More detailed financial information than is provided in the weekly bulletin is now being included in the Preview. The information is only a snapshot of the church's financial status on the day the report was generated and is not audited information. Please direct all inquiries for additional information to Debbie Stankovich, Church Administrator, at 943-3164 or debbie.stankovich@richlandlutheran.org.

Need a place to let God renew, refresh, and rejuvenate you for His work in the world? Then come to the HeBrews Café where you will find nourishment for your body, mind, and soul.

HeBrews Café will be reopening January 11 between services in the Prince of Peace fellowship area.

Celebrate a baptism, an anniversary, a birthday, or just the blessing of being in a caring Christian community. Sign up to serve on the bulletin board next to the water fountain in the narthex.

Start watching for weekly percolators. Now if that doesn't pique your curiosity, nothing will!

Adult Education Opportunities: Sunday mornings during the Education Hour, 9:45-10:45 AM

The Book of Matthew: an in-depth study of the gospel of Matthew led by Dave Hogan. This is an ongoing study and you are welcome to join any time.

Study for Men: Russ Warren leads a Sunday school class for men entitled "Turning Doubt Into Vital Faith." This is an opportunity for men to explore their doubts about their faith through the video series by Lee Strobel based on his book "The Case for Christ."

A Bible class will be offered between the 8:30 AM and 11 AM Sunday services on 'Mutual Invitational Bible Study' beginning Sunday, January 11. The material to be used will be the scripture readings for the following Saturday and Sunday. This will be a time to study, reflect, share, and pray using the word of God as the centerpiece of our focus. The meeting place will be announced later. Pastor William Voris, Interim Associate Pastor, will be the leader.

Will You be Ready?

Today it's ABCs and 123s. Tomorrow? Socrates and college degrees.

Before you know it, your children, grandchildren, and godchildren will be ready for college. Will you?

On Sunday, January 25, 2009 at 12:15 PM in the Prince of Peace fellowship area., Tyler S. Wanke of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans will present a free, informative college funding seminar. Attendees will learn about sources of college funding, financial aid, scholarships, loans, savings vehicles, and education tax credits.

Lunch will be served before the session. Sign up on the yellow worship slip, on the church website, call the church office (943-3164) or contact Tyler at 783-7050 or at tyler.wanke@thrivent.com.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: January 12

Share Your Faith, cont'd

In your neighborhood:

- Host a new neighbors BBQ when someone new moves into the neighborhood. Offer a prayer before eating .
- Be public in a subtle way about your faith.
- Coordinate a block party. Plan activities for the kids that foster friendships. Plan games that encourage sharing about life and values.

In your home and with your family:

- Witness your faith with your own family by gently stating "I believe..."
- Commit to regular prayer before meals and family devotions.
- Play Christian music when listening to background music.

At times of life passage and celebration:

- Remember birthdays, baptisms, first communions, confirmations, anniversaries, weddings, funerals, graduations, birth or adoption of a child, a move into a new home or apartment, and job transitions as special times when a word of blessing and affirmation can be shared through cards, letters, phone calls or in person.

- Gift a person with a special Bible, musical tape, or devotional booklet.
- Write a personal note about your faith inside the cover of a special gift.

At holiday and "holy day" times:

- Remember that some people are more inclined to first come to church at Christmas or Easter.
- Look for creative ways to invite a friend, neighbor or co-worker to worship or to a special holiday event.
- At Christmas time, provide faith-related gifts and storybooks to neighbor children, teachers, and friends.

Reflections:

"Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence." 1 Peter 3:15

Valentine Dinner Fundraiser!!!

A big THANK YOU to Janet Sliter for volunteering to take over the baptismal napkin ministry. Another big THANK YOU to Leslie and Mikayla Sievers and RaeAnn Schritter who expressed an interest in sewing the crosses on the napkins. If anyone else has an interest in helping to make the napkins please contact Janet Sliter at 628-1151. (This is a corrected phone number). Another THANK YOU to Chris Emmons for hemming the napkins for many years and to Nancy Bergman who has sewn the crosses for us. RLC has been blessed by their ministry.

Parish Nursing Notes

One of the ways we at Richland Lutheran Church support our community is through our Red Cross blood drives. If you have never had the “nerve” or taken the time to donate, please consider signing up for our next drive Monday, January 19, from 2:00 PM – 6:00 PM at the church. We have scheduled five dates for drives during 2009: January 19, March 16, June 8, August 3, and November 23.

To be eligible to give, donors must be healthy, at least 16 years old (donors under 18 require an American Red Cross parental consent form), weigh at least 110 pounds and may not have donated whole blood in the past 56 days. If you have questions about your eligibility, call the Red Cross at 1-800-488-5428 or the local office at 946-5001.

A well balanced diet with plenty of iron-rich foods helps maintain a healthy hematocrit level so that you will be eligible to donate. Iron-rich food include legumes, nuts and seeds, meat and fish, fortified cereals and whole grain breads, certain fruits and vegetables. See the bulletin board across from the Friendship Room for a complete listing. It is important to be well hydrated for several days before your donation. Sign up on the yellow worship slip to donate or call me at 547-6117 or if you have questions. A special THANKS to everyone who donated and helped with our drives during 2008.

Wishing you a healthy 2009 . . . Sharon Hickman, RN, parish nurse

LCS Brunch & Auction -- Woven Together

The staff and volunteers of Lutheran Community Services (LCS) are already hard at work planning the 2009 LCS Celebration Brunch and Auction! It will be held Sunday, March 8, from 12:00 Noon - 3:00 PM at the Red Lion Columbia Center Hotel. We hope you can join us for great food, fellowship, and the opportunity to learn about and support the programs of LCS in our local area. Our theme will be “Woven Together” and will feature our Family Support Programs. We are seeking donations for the auction, especially handmade or hand-crafted items. For more information on the brunch or auction, call Jean Tucker at 509-735-6446,

Dear Richland Lutheran,

On behalf of Abiding Savior Lutheran Church and Pastor Larry Gedde and his wife, Evelyn, we want to humbly and emphatically proclaim our THANK YOU for your generous donation to the Benefit for Pastor Gedde on November 16. We have collected over $25,000 in donations and over $8,000 from the silent auction. . . . So far, we have turned over more than $31,000 to Larry and Evelyn, and we have promised them that there will be more. . . .

The Gedde Benefit Committee

Thank you so very much for the extremely generous donation of turkey dinners for our foster families! We were so grateful for the outpouring of generosity and support in helping families we serve. You brightened the holiday for so many !!

Jean Tucker and Staff of Lutheran Community Services

Mange Tak! Many thanks!

When Trond Tilton had his accident and was hospitalized, someone anonymously gave the Tilttons a generous financial gift to help them through the hard time. Not only did this gift help in a practical way, it offered tremendous encouragement that helped them spiritually and emotionally. Since Steve and Nina do not know for sure who the donor was (but suspect it was a member of RLC), they are expressing their thanks by doubling the amount and donating it to the Pastor's Discretionary Fund with hopes that the kind soul who helped them will see this and know what gratitude they feel.

What do you do with your old cell phones?

A good place to dispose of old cell phones and accessories would be in the Good Deed Boxes at church.

All equipment will be refurbished and used to protect battered and homeless women--a project of the Evangelical Lutheran Church Women
