

THE PREVIEW

MAKING DISCIPLES WHO WORSHIP, GROW, SERVE, AND STEWARD

Thanksgiving Eve Worship
Wednesday, November 22nd at 7:00 PM

Arts/Crafts/Quilts - Antiques & Collectibles - Bake Sale

The fall fundraiser for Good News Media Ministry will be Saturday, November 4th. This is hosted by the Sewing Bee, with 100% of sales benefiting the GNMM ministry. Please bring your baked goods donations to the church on Friday, Nov. 3rd between 12:00-6:00 PM. Baked goods must be wrapped, and will not be consumed onsite. To donate a handcrafted item for sale, or if you have other questions, please contact Betty Quinn at (509) 521-7214.

Quilt previews and sales will be available beginning Oct. 29th following the annual meeting. Quilts are sold on a first come-first served basis, and cannot be held, so please bring cash/check/card to purchase at the time of selection.

Giving Tree for UGM

Beginning November 5th, our annual Giving Tree for the Union Gospel Mission will be set up for collecting warm clothing and other items for UGM to gift to people who come to them for help. We do this early so that those in need can receive items of warmth and care when they need them during the cold winter months. The tree will be up through December 3rd. Items will be taken to UGM on a weekly basis.

November 5 - Day Light Savings Ends!

Remember to “fall back” and change your clocks on Saturday night, November 4th!

What'cha Readin'?

From Pastor Steve

Regularly you hear from me about what I'm reading in my time with Jesus. This month, I'd like to hear from you about what you're reading in your time with Jesus. Now, I would expect all of us to be reading Scripture, of course, and that's necessary and good. I also know, many of you read books for discipleship, spiritual formation, Christian living, theology, poetry, biography, missions, social issues, and much more to aid in your faith development. Those are the books about which I'm interested in hearing from you. For instance, currently I'm reading Ragamuffin Gospel by Brennan Manning and finding great value in it.

So, if you're willing, share with me what you're currently or have recently read. You can shoot me an email at steve.ernst@richlandlutheranchurch.com. Some of the things I'd like to hear about include, but are not limited to; Why did you choose the book you're reading or have just read? Was it recommended to you? Had you heard about the book before you decided to read it? Was the cover, title, content interesting to you? Who endorses the book?

I'd also like to hear about why you like or dislike the book. What's good about it? What do you find helpful? Challenging? Have you found some good quotes you'd like to share? If you don't like the book, why not? What rubbed you the wrong way? Is there any redeeming merit to what you've read or are reading?

Furthermore, and perhaps most importantly, how has the book affected you? Are you thinking differently about something? Has the book inspired you to behave or act differently? Has the book changed your opinion about something? Has it confirmed something you already believe to be true? How has the book changed you?

Lastly, would you recommend the book? Why or why not? If so, what's the main purpose of the book? Why should I, or someone else, read it? What are the top benefits you gained from reading the book? How would you summarize the book in a few sentences? Would it be okay if I shared your review with others?

You're probably way ahead of me at this point, but if you haven't figured it out yet, I'd like to also share what you're reading with the congregation. Regularly folks ask about books I'd recommend for devotional, formational reading. Why not share with one another the books God is using to shape our lives of faith? Seems like a win-win to me! Looking forward to hearing from you.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Steve

President's Message: We Gather Together

Sandy Steele, Congregation President

By the time you read this, we will have had our Annual Congregational Meeting, you will have heard all about what's been going on in and around RLC throughout the year, and you will have voiced your thoughts and opinions regarding the various topics that Council will have presented to you for your approval. Whatever the outcome, I say – "Thank you!" I thank Staff and Council for all of your hard and faithful work and I thank everyone for coming out and taking your time to be with us, to hear us, to talk to us, and to fellowship with us. We love and appreciate you all!

So, on another matter. To you all, my friends and family, I wish you a very Happy Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving is a time of togetherness and gratitude; a time for gathering around the dinner table with our loved ones to share a meal and to share those things for which we are most grateful. This year, for the first time in a couple of years, I'll be celebrating Thanksgiving with my California family and I'm really looking forward to it, given that the last two visits did not end well; but, that's another story for another time. God is giving me a "do-over" and that is one of those things, among many, for which I'm most grateful.

As I reflect on those many things for which I'm grateful, I look to our Heavenly Father and give Him all the thanks and praise. God has surrounded me with so much love; He has truly blessed me many times over in so many ways. This causes me to pause and consider those who walk alone in this life; who have no place for shelter, no food to eat, no family or friends to be with this holiday season, or any season for that matter. I'm not only reminded of how truly blessed I am, but it fills my heart with compassion and empathy for those who are alone in our world and a desire to reach out even if only in prayer. I then think of this prayer of thanksgiving thanking Jesus "for food in a world where many walk in hunger; for faith in a world where many walk in fear; for friends in a world where many walk alone; we give you thanks, O Lord." (author unknown)

As you gather with your family and friends to enjoy this Thanksgiving season, I ask that you join me in thanking God for those many blessings He has showered upon each of us. And, let's not forget those who walk alone. I pray for each and every one of you a Very Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving!

We Gather Together

*We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing now cease from distressing,
Sing praises to His name: He forgets not his own.*

*Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom divine;
So from the beginning the fight we were winning;
Thou, Lord, were at our side, All glory be thine!*

*We all do extol thee, thou leader triumphant,
And pray that thou still our defender will be.
Let thy congregation escape tribulation;
Thy name be ever praised! O Lord, make us free!*

Give
thanks
in all things!

From the Council - Brandon Wheeler - Congregation Council Secretary

“No!” – When Prayers Aren’t Answered the Way We Want

There is a well known country song that came out in the 90’s, in which the chorus discusses thanking God for “unanswered prayers,” which it then continues to describe as those things we want in the moment that we find out later are actually blessings because they did not work out. Now, there are trivial prayers such as winning the lottery, having a successful fishing or hunting trip or asking God to help your favorite team win the Super Bowl (to be clear: as a Broncos fan, at this point I simply ask God to help them be competitive or possibly win a single game. It is also important to accept the reality of where our team is at the moment our prayers are said.) But, there are certainly more serious prayers that we share every day including prayers for health, well-being, faith of a loved one, and for God’s presence to be known in the world.

We know that God hears all prayers and answers all prayers, as we are assured of this many times in scripture (look at James 5:16, Matthew 7:7, Luke 18:1, and 1 John 5:14-15 just to name a few, though there are many more passages discussing prayers.) One common pattern and teaching through churches is that if we ask God for what we want, it will work out with the prayer getting answered in the way we want. This is a belief that is only affirmed with passages that tell us “God works for the good of those who love him” (Romans 8:28) and to “ask whatever you wish and it will be done for you” (John 15:7). However, it is important to know that sometimes the answer God gives to our prayer is No! And...that is still an answered prayer. I want to say that again, because too often it is taboo to hear a preacher talk on this idea: Sometimes God will not answer prayers in the way we want, but those prayers are still answered.

For instance, when I was 15, I remember praying every night that God would heal my mom from her brain aneurysm...and three days later, she went to join him. I was so confused and left wondering how God could not heal her when I had prayed for it? While I don’t know why and may not ever know why, it was answered no...the truth is, that God answered it no in my mind. But, what if his healing meant that it was her time to go to her heavenly home? In another example, I remember after I found out I had an anxiety disorder losing a relationship that was very important to me and would pray that God would “make it better.” Then came a pandemic that shut the world down and isolated everyone. This is especially challenging when my anxiety tries to tell me that people will not be there in moments of need. I was left wondering how God could “make it better” when everything around me seemed to be making it worse. However, it is through the pandemic that God has really assured me and helped me live out that he is enough and that he is the one who will stay, regardless of circumstances.

God hears all
our prayers,
but sometimes his answer is,
“No.”

Now, it is in these trials of faith and through God answering prayers that he has made himself most present and most known, and I believe that is a key to mature faith. When a loved one is not healed, or passes away unexpectedly it is easy to say God does not answer prayers. When there is a war in the Holy Land and a world that seems to be getting darker and darker by the day, it is easy to say God does not answer prayers. When what we most want is for a renewal of our faith and we are met with even more trials, it is easy to say God does not answer prayers.

But I challenge us to grow in faith, and to say that maybe God has answered our prayer – and he has answered that prayer in a way that seems to tell us “no.” Not because God does not love us, but because he loves us enough as his children to give us what we need, even if it does not make sense to us in the moment. Because, as a parent does not give their child everything the child ever wants, we know we are children of God (1 John 3:2) and we know that he is our perfect Father. Let us cling to the truth that there is no such thing as an “unanswered prayer” – simply God loving us as a perfect father.

Winter Weather

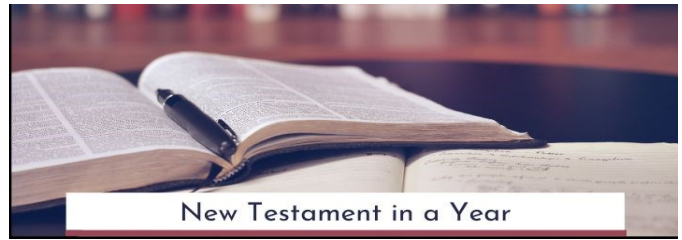

It is that time of the year again when we start to be aware of adverse weather conditions. RLC takes its lead for closures and cancellations from the Richland School District (RSD). When RSD announces a two-hour delay, all morning activities at RLC are canceled. When RSD announces a closure, all activities for that day at RLC are canceled. When the Hanford Site or RSD initiates an early release due to weather-related conditions, RLC also closes and cancels remaining activities for the day. When conditions deteriorate after school hours or on weekends, the decision to cancel events resides with the ministry leader responsible for the event. These policies were put in place to simplify the decision-making process and to give facility staff ample time to prepare for the safe arrival of people to church activities. We will send out Grapevine messages through the email and the RLC App if we are canceling activities or closing the building due to weather conditions. Please keep an eye on your email for these notices.

November Operation Christmas Child Request: Monetary Donations for Shipping Boxes

This month, our request is for monetary donations to cover the $10 per box shipping cost.

Packing Night is scheduled Wednesday, Nov. 15th! Join us at 6:00 PM in the fellowship hall as we pack all the gifts and supplies we've collected this year into the boxes.

This is also a great time to start writing notes to be included in the boxes! A simple handwritten note, even on just plain stationary or notebook paper, letting the recipient know that Jesus loves him or her, will go a long way in making the box more personal. We would love to have a note in every box!

Volunteer Opportunities at RLC

Ushers & Communion Assistants

We are in need of ushers and communion assistants for the 11:00 am worship service. Please contact Jenny Page if you would be interested in serving as an usher or communion assistant once a month.

The Jefferson Tutoring Team is also looking for a couple more people who would enjoy tutoring students at Jefferson Elementary School. Volunteers need to pass a background check at both RLC and the school district. Contact Betty Quinn for info.

Will you help?

Packing of Lunches

We are in need of additional volunteers for packing of weekend lunches for Sacagawea Elementary. We meet twice a month on Wednesdays at 11:30 am in the Fellowship Hall.

Please contact Patti Miller for more information at 509-420-0485.

SUPER KIDS!

Super Kids! is a mid-week ministry for children in kindergarten thru 5th grade.

We meet in person on Wednesdays from 6:00-7:15 PM, in room 4!

Each week, we learn biblical truths from God's Word, and generally have a lot of fun with crafts, games and silliness. Come join us!

This year, we will be experiencing the whole story of the New Testament! It's more than just the "greatest hits" or "most popular stories," it's "What's In the Bible!"

This curriculum is designed to engage children in the whole narrative of God's Word. The Bible is not just a book of rules, but a book of rescue — the beautiful story of the Father who longs to be in relationship with every one of us, and who went to extraordinary measures to bring us into His Kingdom! We want children to be on a lifelong journey of relationship with the Living God!

Please check over the schedule carefully.

If you cannot serve when you are scheduled, please trade with someone (either call/email them, or use the "swap" option in the online scheduling portal). "*" indicates an available service opportunity. If you can fill in, please log into the church website portal and check the "My Serving" opportunities on your profile, or call the church office (509-943-3164).

Birthdays and Anniversaries

You may be wondering...

"Where are all the Anniversaries and Birthdays?"

Well, starting this month, RLC will no longer be publishing Anniversaries and Birthdays in the 'Preview'. This is in an effort to protect the sensitive information of our members, or PII (Personal Identifiable Information). You will still be able to access these dates through our online member portal, CCB (Church Community Builder).

Feel free to reach out to the office you have any questions or need additional assistance. Thanks!
