

An Epic Adventure Awaits!

New friends! Amazing experiments! Wild games!
Surprising adventures! Incredible music!

At Kingdom Rock, kids participate in memorable Bible-learning activities, sing catchy songs, play teamwork-building games, experience epic Bible adventures, meet Bible Memory Buddies to remind them to stand strong, and test out Sciency-Fun Gizmos they'll take home and play with all summer long. Plus, kids will learn to look for evidence of God all around them through something called God Sightings. Each day concludes with Fanfare Finale—a celebration that gets everyone involved in living what they've learned. Kingdom Rock is for kids from age 3 years to 5th grade, and will run from June 24 to June 28.

Register today at the information center in the Prince of Peace fellowship area, or online via the church website.

RLC in Mission for Christ: Core Values Set Culture

Every people group has “core values” by which they relate and abide which define their culture. Some groups simply let these core values happen around them without deliberate thought and intentionality. Street gangs, for instance, have core values which shape their culture. Fear, command and control, violence, retaliation, and chaos are values we see lived out in these gangs. I highly doubt any of these gangs have a website with these core values listed. Gang culture then develops around these very values.

People groups who want to live in a healthy culture are deliberate, thoughtful, and intentional about setting their core values. Take for example the Kiwanis International Foundation. On their website they list their core values for all to see; stewardship, transparency, responsiveness, legacy, integrity, and trust. They have been very deliberate about setting their core values and living by them. As such they are well known for their healthy culture and relationships.

Likewise, congregations in mission for Christ are deliberate, thoughtful, and intentional about setting their core values. At RLC we have identified our core values as; Spirituality, Love, Truth, Accountability, and Integrity to maintain a healthy culture and relationships. The absolute key, however, to the effectiveness of core values in maintaining a healthy culture and relationships is every single person’s commitment to abide by them. It is possible to have a set of core values in writing and another set of core values in practice. In my role as LCMC Ministry Board Chair I see this all too often. The stated core values of a congregation are not the core values by which those in the congregation live. This makes for all kinds of trouble.

Since all of RLC’s core values have their root in Scripture we can be encouraged by the Apostle James as he says, “Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.” May we all, by God’s strength and with His grace, not only know but all the more practice our core values.

Financial Update

Treasurer's Report – May 2013

As reflected in the financial summary below, the financial results have been mixed so far this year. Our offerings are down $(28,693) or 11.0% less than last year for the same period. Our expenses are up $45,922, or 16.0% more than the same time last year. For the year, our offerings are below expenses by $(25,939) compared to $48,677 in 2012, a change from last year of $(74,616). These results are reflected in the columns titled "Prior Year Comparison".

	Year to Date			Prior Year Comparison
	Actuals	Budget	Variance	YTD '13	YTD '12	Variance
Offering / Income	$ 253,327	$ 263,200	$ (9,873)	$ 253,327	$ 282,021	$ (28,693)
Expense	$(279,266)	$(267,265)	$ 12,001	$(279,266)	$(233,344)	$ 45,922
Profit / (Loss)	$ (25,939)	$ (4,065)	$ (21,874)	$ (25,939)	$ 48,677	$ (74,616)

For the year, actual offerings are below budget by $(9,873) and actual expenses were over budget by $12,001. The increased expense is primarily due to timing of the expense.

With summer just around the corner, I would encourage each of you to continually give faithfully and consistently throughout the summer. Historically, our giving during the summer months have been approximately 15% below the average giving for the year. Please remember that we still have staff salaries, utilities and other monthly expenses that occur during the summer months.

If you have any questions regarding this financial summary, please contact Debbie Stankovich, Lisa Wiegand or me.

In His Service,

Rich Olsen

Summer Sermon Series: "Simply Christian"

Starting the first weekend in June Pastors Steve and Corey are beginning a new sermon series for the summer that will take us through the basic theological and doctrinal concepts of Christianity as seen by world renowned Anglican bishop and scholar N.T. Wright. Using Wright's book, "Simply Christian: Why Christianity Makes Sense," we hope to walk through the Christian faith step-by-step and question-by-question. We will attempt to get at the deep questions of faith and life, for example: why do we expect justice? Why do we crave spirituality? Why are relationships often so painful? How will the world be made right? These questions take us to the heart of who God is and what He wants from us.

From the Council

Paul tells us in 1 Timothy 5:17-18, “The elders who direct the affairs of the church well are worthy of double honor, especially those whose work is preaching and teaching. For the Scripture says, ‘Do not muzzle the ox while it is treading out the grain,’ and ‘The worker deserves his wages.’” This scripture, in short, addresses the principle of fair provisions for those who serve God’s church – our staff.

Compensation is a difficult topic for most organizations at the best of times, but when it comes to churches, the subject seems to be even more so and RLC is no exception. This has been a point of discussion at our Council meetings over the last few months; and, because we feel it to be of high importance, a small task force was formed to further explore this topic and to bring back to Council a recommendation for a compensation and performance award/incentive program that is both fair and equitable and, more importantly, displays love and care for this amazing group of people – each uniquely gifted by God.

This team has been working diligently over the last several weeks, researching comparative data, discussing and planning. We want to feel confident, as well as provide needed confidence and security to our staff, that they are being properly compensated and rewarded.

We should not forget however that, although fair monetary compensation is important, the form of compensation that has the most meaningful and lasting effect is the non-monetary, informal, unexpected show of appreciation – a card, phone call, email – saying “You’re doing a great job!”; “Keep up the good work!”; “You’re appreciated because...”, or a simple “Thank you”. And, no special occasions are necessary. In fact, small surprises and tokens of appreciation spread throughout the year will help those on the receiving end to feel valued all year long. Council is continually encouraged by Pastor Steve to rise to this opportunity – extending to RLC’s staff our appreciation. I invite each of you to do likewise. Words are powerful and influential. And those words specially chosen for encouragement and affirmation can elevate anyone’s spirits.

Each and every member of RLC’s staff devotes a great deal of time and energy serving God by serving His church and they each do it with love and joy knowing that it is God whom they are truly serving. As a Christian community it is our responsibility to see that they are appropriately recognized for this service.

As Jesus tells us in Luke 10:7, “...the worker deserves his wages.” God’s workers also deserve a simple show of love and appreciation from all of us.

In God’s Service,
Sandy Steele

24 And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds...encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Hebrews 10:24 & 25b

If You Think I Haven't Been Myself Lately, There's a Reason

Based upon this month's headline for the column: you're expecting me to give you a litany of various maladies I'm suffering. I do have some. First came what was diagnosed as "acute sinus infection" ("But Doc! There's nothing cute about this infection!") Then one of my formerly upper front teeth showed up in my hash browns at breakfast. The tooth fractured horizontally at the gum line, the morning we were to leave for our annual continuing education course in Vancouver, B.C. According to the dentist, there was nothing that could be done until we returned from north of the border. Oh, well, at least in Canada I could pass myself off as a retired hockey player.

But this month's headline, isn't in reference to my physical health. A subtitle for it should be: "And You Haven't Been Yourself Lately, Either". None of us have been. The human body undergoes a complete change every 7 years. This means that if you divide your age by 7, you'll discover how many bodies you've used up in your lifetime. I'm sure some of you readers are hoping at this point that I'll disclose how many bodies I've discarded in my considerable lifetime ("Let's see...39 divided by 7 is...") Is it any wonder we don't seem like ourselves, since we're always undergoing such radical change?

We're continually changing physically. Yet it's still the same person enclosed within. This is a pretty good hint for the credibility of the resurrection body. That we even survive the bodily changes of the grave is certified by the bodily resurrected Jesus Christ; and is hinted at in the continual change of our earthly body. "...we will all be changed..." is the manner in which St. Paul expresses it of our resurrection in 1 Corinthians 15:51.

I've lived in a lot of different places on earth - and in a lot of different bodies ("Divide by 7"). We think of such places and bodies as "the good old days." We forget negative and evil things encountered back there - and in those permutations of our bodies! While there were many good and commendable things about those places and times of our lives: our yearning for there and then exposes our resistance to change.

Various changes God has led/is leading me through have often brought me to protest to Him that surely He can hear the gears of my life loudly grinding (read, "complaining") as He leads me. That's the thing, isn't it? Attach yourself to God through Jesus Christ (and I trust you have!): and you must quickly submit to the fact you've attached yourself to the God leading you on a personal and corporate Exodus. I'm not suggesting all change is good or of the Lord; but don't yearn to go back to Egypt. As I await the arrival of another grandchild, I know the father, (my son) will soon be giving the child a lot of changes; and that's for its (and our) good. An unchanged baby is neither sweet, or itself as God intended. Lead and change us, Lord of our past, present and future!

Pastor Dave

Parish Health Ministry

Safety Training Summary by Jenifer Haler

Love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and your neighbor as yourself. (Luke 10:27)

The CPR/ AED/ First Aid event held in May equipped nearly fifty RLC members to show God's love to others. The four-hour training taught effective actions anyone could take in an emergency situation, including calling 9-1-1. A rhyme helped participants assess a person in distress and respond appropriately: "If pale - lift tail, if red - lift head, if blue - You have CPR to do!"

Statistics say that everyone will be in a situation where they could perform CPR at least once in their lifetime. Using an AED (Automated External Defibrillator), such as the one Richland Lutheran has mounted in a cabinet in the hallway outside the library conference room, in addition to beginning chest compressions (CPR) increases a victim's chance of survival by 75%.* For every minute that passes between collapse and defibrillation survival rates decrease 7 - 10%, if no help is provided.*

In The 52 Greatest Stories of the Bible: A Devotional Study, John Turner writes (based on 1 John) that heaven is not a place we go when & where we "get rid of this pesky earth suit." Heaven is made possible now, through the redeeming work of Jesus Christ, when we live in fellowship with God and with one another.

In Roman times there was little respect/ reverence for life. Unwanted babies were left, exposed, in the streets to die, but Christians got a reputation for taking these helpless infants into their homes, loving them back to life. Slaves were given respect in Christian churches and all were told ... there is no difference between Jew or Greek, slave or free (Philemon). The early Christian church grew because they followed the new commandment, "Love one another as I (Jesus) have loved you." (John 15:12) Christians are not rule followers (as the Pharisees), we are Christ followers. To quote a well-known song, "They will know we are Christians by our love."

I want to express our gratitude to Thrivent, especially Michelle Clary and Chris Houglum, Regional Community Engagement Leader, for their financial support for the training and the first aid kits which every participant received. I pray that God will continue to work within Richland Lutheran Church, providing us with opportunities and tools to reflect the love of Christ.

High School Mission Trippers Are Lodge Grass Bound

On June 15th, a group of High Schoolers and adults from RLC will be making the drive to Lodge Grass, Montana for our eighth year of service on the annual High School Mission Trip through the organization Youth Works. During the week, our group will run a daily Kid's Club, paint houses and do minor home repair, run a sports camp for teens, worship, learn about the Crow Indian culture, and serve wherever needed in Jesus' name.

Good news from Lodge Grass:

Originally the staff at Lodge Grass (including RLC's Ellie Page) needed sports equipment for their sports camp. However, they have received plenty of equipment for this summer. Therefore, we will not need to take any additional sports items this year!

We would love for you to keep these youth and adults in your prayers:

Ben Hoffner, Ellie Hoffner, Jack Page, Courtney Olsen, Brittney Crisp, Kate Juergens, Kira Westlund, Drew Snyder, Alisha Bettinson, Ryan Warren, Ben Barr, Jon Page, Heidi Dagle, and Casey Vernon. Also, please keep the community in Lodge Grass in your prayers!
