Summer Reading List

From Pastor
Corey

Can you believe summer is upon us already? With summer (hopefully!) comes some time to rest, relax, and enjoy an early sunrise or a beautiful sunset with a good book. Now, I always recommend reading the Bible—it is the only book that is living and active after all (Heb 4:12). But sometimes God blesses us with other fantastic books to strengthen our faith and give us food for thought.

Often I get asked, “Corey, what books do you recommend?”, and rarely do I give a short answer. I wasn’t much of a reader in high school, but when I became a follower of Christ, it was like I couldn’t get enough to read. Over the years I’ve read some amazing and inspiring books, as well as some that were pretty awful. So, this month I’d like to share some of the books that I often recommend that have truly impacted my walk with Jesus...and I won’t bother to share the stinkers!

Here are some of my absolute favorites:

- “The Holiness of God” by R.C. Sproul. This book changed my whole view of God and is considered Sproul’s masterpiece.
- “Don’t Waste Your Life” by John Piper. Want a book that will challenge your mind and heart? This is it.
- “The Bondage of the Will” by Martin Luther. The masterpiece of Luther. This is a tough read, but if you want a taste of the genius of Luther, this is a classic.
- “Look and Live” by Matt Papa. An easy read, but truly stirs the heart to open and see the glory of Christ.
- “A Simple Way to Pray” by Martin Luther. This little book affected my prayer life in a powerful way. Everyone should have this little gem on their bookshelf.
- “A Christmas Carol” by Charles Dickens. I know, a Christmas story? This story, however, is a beautiful picture of the “old man” versus the new creation. This story is pertinent any time of year.
- “In Christ Alone” by Sinclair Ferguson. A wonderful picture of who Jesus is, and what it means to be called His follower.

While nothing is ever as powerful as God’s Word, these are just a few books that have been meaningful to me. Hopefully, you’re continuing strong in “Read the Bible 2018”, and perhaps you’ll find some joy and challenges in this little list!

President's Perspectives

How can we reflect God's love to each other, our community, and beyond? Council will begin work this summer on the 2019 Ministry Plan and Funding Proposal. Ministry teams will be giving input into the process.

Our Vision and Mission statement says, "Richland Lutheran Church is a congregation of Christ followers making disciples who worship, grow, serve and steward." To organize ourselves, we have grouped our efforts into four large areas, centered on Christ. Ministry teams cluster around Christ in these four large areas.

Worship
Spiritual Growth
Christian Service
Biblical Stewardship

In 2017 we celebrated, "Doing Life Together." Pastor Steve encouraged us to embrace, "God's call to love one another through deep, intimate, accountable relationships in and through Christ Jesus." We were encouraged by our congregation president to open our homes to one another and get to know more members over coffee or a meal. Our Hebrews' Cafe was revitalized. We celebrated the 500th anniversary of the Reformation with a German-themed congregational meal and meeting. We want to encourage one another to continue reaching out and drawing closer to our brothers and sisters in Christ - one family of our Father, who art in heaven.

Our focus for 2018 has been "Discipleship." The Great Commission is our mission. "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." (Matthew 28:19) We hope you find yourself involved in one or more of the groups of people at Richland Lutheran Church working to spread God's message of salvation. A diagram of the organization of the teams at RLC can be found on the hall wall between the Narthex and Pastor Steve's (now Pastor Karen's) office. Are you involved in Good News Media Ministry, as a lector, an usher, the praise team, in choir, at a men's prayer breakfast, going to the women's LIFT group, mission trips, addressing outreach postcards, cooking, painting, sewing, singing, playing an instrument, praying.....? If you are doing things, you are a member of a "team" at RLC.

The third Thursday of every month, beginning at 6:30 PM in the Prince of Peace fellowship hall is Ministry Team Night at RLC. What does one do at a "team" meeting? Team members discuss their area of ministry. They communicate and generate ideas about how their area of ministry is operating. Perhaps they discuss ideas as to what they want to do next or how their ministry might change, grow, or _____, (You fill in the blank.) Council members attend, too, receiving input and information from the teams which effect policy and budget.

Council is beginning to gather information for our 2019 Ministry Plan and Funding Proposal. This plan will be presented at our annual congregation meeting on Sunday, October 28. We will have one service on that Reformation Sunday (10 AM), followed by a meal and the congregation meeting. Now is the time to give input into the planning and funding process. As a member of Richland Lutheran Church and member of our "team," come to a Ministry Team Night this summer on July 19 and August 16 at 6:30 PM. Childcare is available. Be a part of RLC's plan for the future.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11 (NIV)

Jenifer Haler, Acting Council President

From the Council

Greetings Preview Readers,

I would like to take a brief moment of your time and share with you the small journey we have been taking to prepare our son, Adam, for his mission trip to Estonia through the Eastern European Mission Network (EEMN). Our first stop was to speak with Mot and Pam Hedges. They were, and continue to be, very helpful fielding the many questions we have had. We have utilized their experience and they have exercised their patience with first time mission takers. Together through prayer we decided that Adam would take this step and be a part of the mission trip to Estonia. Now the timeline began. There were many things to be considered in what seemed like a short time. Everything from deciding which mission best fit Adam's timeline for starting college, applying for a Passport, funding for the trip, getting supplemental health insurance, being able to describe his personal relationship with Christ, flight itinerary, and meeting with and training with fellow mission travelers from around the U.S. via web conferencing.

What has seemed like a daunting task has somehow become manageable. This can be attributed to answered prayer, support from RLC as well as many conversations with friends and family. We look forward to hearing from Adam and all those taking part in the mission trip to Estonia as they continue Christ's work.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Richland Lutheran Church and all those folks who have supported Adam through prayer, advice, friendship and generous giving.

With Regards,

Jeff Pilger, Financial Officer

From the Health Ministry Team

Health Tip: There is a new shingles vaccine available for healthy individuals age 50+. Talk to your primary care doctor to see if you qualify for the vaccine to prevent the painful disease Shingles.

RLC Mission Teams Updates

It is with great joy that we welcome Mike and Julie Penley and Jenna back to Richland for the next couple of months. May God bless their time here in the US as they rest and vacation and visit friends and family.

The Estonia Mission Team continues to prepare for English Bible Camp in Estonia. We are currently working on our lesson plans and finalizing details regarding our roles and responsibilities. Please keep Warner Blyckert in prayer as he recovers from a broken foot and will not be able to travel with us. We will miss his company and input! Our team will fly out from Seattle on August 1 to meet up with the rest of our team in Estonia.

The Youth Mission Team has returned from Lodge Grass, Montana. They had a great week serving on the Crow Reservation and seeing old friends and making new friends. Plan to come to worship on Sunday, July 15, to hear from the youth about the work they did and the relationships they built during their time in Montana in June.

Signups will start in mid-August. We will need help with setup and cleanup, making cotton candy and snow cones, running games and supervising the bounce houses. Our Men's Ministry does the BBQing and food prep. Volunteers provide a wonderful variety of cupcakes. For the second year, our praise band will provide live music, too!

It's a great time to come and meet our surrounding neighbors and share the love of Jesus!
