Eternally Grateful

From Pastor Steve

I have a confession to make, I love ice cream! I try not to have it too often, but man, is it a struggle. I love ice cream so much that I've convinced myself that it will be the mainstay of sustenance in heaven. If ice cream is already heavenly, I can't even imagine what heavenly ice cream will be like. Mind blown!

As a kid, we were fortunate enough to have a Foster's Freeze not too far from the house. At Foster's, they would take said ice cream, blend with milk and malt, slow pour into a paper cup, cap, insert straw and distribute to yours truly. Ah, the joy and euphoria of the chocolate malt...Delicious!

Now, fast forward to the last couple of weeks and enter into my surprise when I hear people talking about malts. "What's a malt?" "Who needs a malt anyway?" "Why are malts in the ministry plan?" Can you hear my responses? "Malts are heaven's sustenance; everyone needs a malt; malts are in the ministry plan, thank you Jesus!" Well, it didn't take long for me to realize folks were talking about a different kind of malt, our Ministry Area Leadership Team.

Before I describe to you a MALT, I must first apologize. I have not done a good job of communicating to you, the congregation, about these teams. For that I apologize and thank you for your grace.

A MALT is a team of both Council and Staff members who provide support to our four areas of ministry: Worship, Grow, Serve, and Steward. We put together these teams a couple of years ago for several purposes. First, we wanted the Council and Staff to work more collaboratively together in ministry and mission. Along with their other work, each year Council members agree to work directly in one area of ministry with the staff in that area to support the teams and members who also serve in that area. Second, we were looking for a way for Council members to be better connected with the members and ministries of the church. Third, Council members find more joy and satisfaction in their work when they are "in the trenches" doing ministry. The regular functions of these four teams are as follows:

1. Pray for one another and for those who are involved in your area of ministry.
2. Implement, review, and evaluate the regular functions and yearly tasks of the ministry teams in your area.
3. Intentionally communicate with ministry teams and team leaders in your area of ministry. Encourage them, support them, inform them, listen to them.
4. Review and recommend to Council any necessary changes to policy and other governing documents as needed.
5. Manage the budget in your area of ministry.
6. Report monthly to the whole Council on your progress in the above areas and inform them of any action needed to be taken.

So, it turns out that malts are both delicious and helpful too. Who knew? If you have any further questions about these teams please contact me, another staff member or a council member. We're always pleased to hear from you.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Steve

TEAM NIGHT

For other opportunities within the ministries at RLC, plan to come to Team Night on the third Thursday of each month at 6:30 PM. Teams gather for a short devotional time together and announcements, and then break up into individual ministry teams. This is a great opportunity to find a team in which to serve at RLC, to ask questions, and even propose new ministries.

Dave Larkin,
Council
President

President's Perspectives - In God's Service, Now and Then

Ministry Opportunities – Even as the Father sent Jesus into the world even so Jesus sends us into the world as his disciples and to continue to do the works of the Father. All of us have opportunities individually each day to bear witness to Jesus and show his love to those we come in contact with, whether it is someone at work or the clerk in the grocery store. We also have many opportunities to minister to others while partnering with other church members. Probably the most rewarding opportunities are when we know we have touched someone's life through our witness, an act of love, or through prayer.

But we also can minister through the organization and planning of ministries in committees, task forces, and ministry teams. Currently Council and staff are experiencing more difficulty in finding volunteers who feel a calling to help ministries in this way. We have a number of understaffed ministry teams and a number of understaffed committees and task forces. Recently, Council looked for candidates willing to serve on the very important Nominating Committee. As I write this article eleven members who were contacted turned us down.

If you have an interest in serving on a team, committee, or task force in some particular area of ministry would you let Council, or the staff, know? Meetings may not be your favorite way to spend your time but we truly need your wisdom and passion to make our ministries the most effective in advancing God's Kingdom.

RLC History Timeline – Hopefully you've noticed the ministry matrix on the hall wall outside Pastor Steve's office. It can be helpful in visualizing how our ministries are organized and how they all work together as Christ followers making disciples who worship, grow, serve and steward. The matrix helps our members to understand better where we are headed.

Our staff has proposed and Council is considering another change in our hallway to help the many new members of our congregation better understand and appreciate where our church has been over the seventy-four years since we first worshipped together. The proposal is to use the western wall starting across from the nursery to perhaps as far as the kitchen to show a timeline of the important events of our congregation's history. When was the first worship service held and when was the congregation officially organized? What important ministries have been started by RLC such as the Chaplaincy, the Luther Senior Center, The Good News Media Ministry, Jefferson Tutoring, The Shalom Ecumenical Center, and the Food Pantry and when did they start? Learning about our history helps us feel a bond with those who went before us, making sacrifices and showing God's love for our neighbors.

Council would appreciate hearing your thoughts on this proposal. Do you believe it would be helpful for us? Do you have suggestions on what events or ministries should be included in the timeline? What ministries or events had the most impact on your memories of our church's past?

From the Council

Janet
Budzeck,
Council
Secretary

We know from a very early age that there is an 'ideal' for everything. There is an ideal height and weight. There is an ideal shape of face, nose, teeth and so on. We moan about having large feet, hands and noses, but wish for large eyes, wide set cheekbones, full lips and small ears. Who among us feels they received the ideal body or who can expect to achieve the ideal weight through training and exercise? In the meantime, we are a planet of people who think everything about themselves would be fine if only it were different.

Step back from this thinking for a minute – make a list of the people you love and enjoy being with. Do it now. Is it the shape and size of their body that puts them on your list? I see my friends as beautiful, not only from the outside, but also from the inside. What really matters is the invisible parts – their personality, their caring, their willingness to help to name only a few characteristics.

So, honor, accept and love yourself. You are a child of God and the vehicle through which He works here on earth. You are valuable just the way you are!!!

Grateful for our Volunteers

The bulletins you use each week for worship services go through quite a process before they get to your hands on a Sunday morning or evening.

Julie Gearheard and Lois Harrold work every Thursday afternoon to print and fold all the pages.

Then on Fridays, a team assembles all the bulletins, including adding all the inserts. Bill Bishop, Lois Harrold, Norm and Bobbi Stout, Norm and Sara Gillette, Carol Schmid, Patti Miller, and Doloros Erickson have worked for several years now, taking turns on Fridays.

Please thank all of these wonderful volunteers for all they do to help worship go smoothly on Sundays! If you would be interested in coming in on a Friday morning once or twice a month to help out, please contact Kelly in the church office.

Operation Christmas Child

2017 boxes
packed: 409

November Operation Christmas Child request: Monetary Contributions & Notes of love and encouragement

Your monetary contributions will provide what is needed to buy gifts to help fill the boxes, and to pay the $9 per box shipping cost. We also need short notes of love and encouragement written to be included in the boxes. Can you write a few notes ahead of our packing date and drop them off at the church?

Our goal for 2018 is ~~450 boxes!~~ 600 BOXES!

Packing Night is November 14! Join us for dinner at 6:00 PM in the fellowship hall, and then promptly at 6:30 we will start packing boxes! This is a crazy, loud and fun night as we assembly-line through the packing of hundreds of boxes. We will wrap things up at about 7:45'ish as we pray for the recipients of the boxes.

- A group of 12 adults is needed to spot-check and stack boxes at the end of the assembly line. Spot-checkers are not able to move through the assembly line to personally pack boxes. Please let Jenny know if you are interested in helping in this way.
- At the end of the night, adult help is needed to accurately sort boxes, prepare them for shipping, and move them out of the fellowship hall. This task may take up to two hours to complete. Please let Jenny know if you are interested in helping in this way.
